

THE HENRY LOUNGE

LUNCH MENU

THE HENRY LOUNGE

---

The Henry family were key characters in the Estate's early story. Hugh Henry owned the Estate in the 18th century. He was best known for developing the early banking system. His son John Joseph on the other hand, earned his own reputation for the extravagant parties he threw and his penchant for having his caricature painted. A bit different from his father, but we channel that same vivacity in everything we do today. So peruse our menu, pick your tipple and raise a glass to the Henrys!
