

THE VINTAGE CROP
COCKTAIL BAR

&

MEDIA PUZZLE LOUNGE

As Kildare is rich in equestrian history, it is only fitting that our Hotel Bar would be named after our owner Dr. Michael Smurfit's two great Irish geldings, 'Vintage Crop' & 'Media Puzzle', winners of the 1993 & 2002 Melbourne Gold Cup respectively.

Trained by Dermot Weld, Vintage Crop was the first Irish horse to surpass one million pounds in winnings. He was also the first horse to go from the Northern hemisphere to the Southern hemisphere and win in Melbourne, a record which stood until his stable mate 'Media Puzzle' won in 2002. Both trophies are on display in the Vintage Crop Cocktail Bar & Media Puzzle Lounge.

Barton & Guestier

Bordeaux Reserve from Barton & Guestier is the exclusive label chosen for The K Club. In 1722 Thomas Barton left his native Ireland and settled in Bordeaux where he founded an important wine business which bears his name today. The family business flourished under the guidance of his grandson, Hugh Barton, who bought Chateau Langoa in 1821 and part of the Leoville Barton Estate in 1826.

In 1793 during the French Reign of Terror, Hugh Barton managed to escape to Ireland and left his business under the control of his business partner Daniel Guestier. On reaching Ireland, Hugh Barton bought Straffan Estate and built this wonderful chateau style house where his family remained until 1949 when they sold Straffan House Estate and returned to France permanently. The house forms part of the Hotel here at The K Club.
